Jesus is there, the Prisoner of love. Whether the tabernacle be poor or precious, Jesus is always there. The good parishioner of Ars who was surprised by his saintly parish priest, St John Vianney, as he stood silently at the dwelling place of Jesus, his lips not even moving in prayer replied very simply, `I look at Him and I think He looks at me and this gives me strength.` So there may be prayer, or even contemplation, in the mere gaze of the eyes.
